Chapman - Granberg

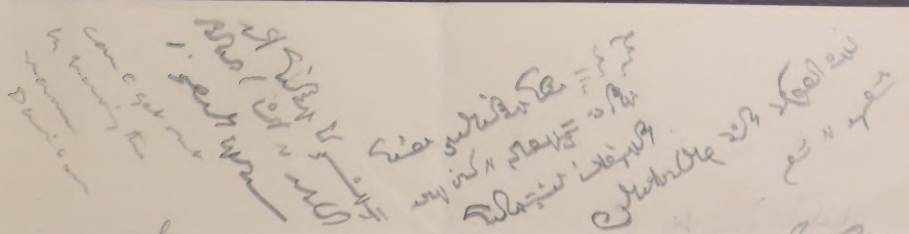
Whereas, on February 17, 1914, Mr. Henry Chapman, a life member of The American Numismatic Society, visited the Exhibition of United States and Colonial Coins, in the building of the Society, ostensibly to view the exhibition, but really to take notes of the various coins exhibited by Mr. H. O. Granberg, of Oshkosh, Wisconsin, and of the cases in which such coins were displayed, and on the following afternoon again visited the exhibition accompanied by a Deputy Sheriff, who, by Mr. Chapman's direction served on the Director of The American Numismatic Society a warrant of attachment covering the coins exhibited by Mr. Ganberg such warrant having been obtained in connection with a suit started by Mr. Chapman to settle a private dispute between himself and Mr. Granberg which did not in any way concern the Society, and

Whereas, Mr. Chapman, by this action, knowingly and intentionally placed the Society, of which he was a member, in a position of great embarrassment, by making it the innocent cause of expense and trouble to an exhibition who for no reason but to advance the cause of numismatics and benefit the Society had loaned for this exhibition a collection of coins of great interest and value, trusting that while in the Society's possession these coins would be safe, and that at the close of the exhibition they would be returned to him, and further placed the Society in the mortifying position of having a sheriff's officer in its building for over twenty four hours watching said coins, and further by such action tended to create a feeling of disinclination on the part of collectors to exhibit valuable coins at public exhibitions, which would be apt to impair the success of future exhibitions of the Society, Therefore be it

Resolved, That a member who will take action so detrimental to the Society's interest and welfare, is not worthy to remain a member.

Resolved, That the amount of Mr. Chapman's life membership fee $100.00 be returned to him, and his immediate resignation demanded.



Whereas on the afternoon of Feb 18 1914 H.C. of Philada a member of this Society in pursuance of a private claim against another visited the Societys building with a deputy sheriff and his custodian with a writ of attachment on the entire exhibit of one of our members and attempted to have the coins attached taken from the Building premises

Whereas as this episode took place during the period of the exhibition of U.S. & Colonial coins and during the hours when the exhibition was open and the building at the time was filled with visitors and for over 2 hours keepers were placed in the building the dignity of the society was humbled and if the demands of H.C. had been complied with the exhibition rooms have been ~~permanently stopped~~ summarily closed

Be it resolved for the benefit of numismatics and to discountenance future menaces of this kind and to attempt to reassure contributors to future exhibitions that the ~~safeguarding of property~~ attaching of in this manner by a member must not be undertaken with out grave consideration of the ~~manner~~ phases of damage

his acts may caused, that Henry Chapman to requested to resign &c.

Dear Sir and Friend

Your wire received. I do not know what is necessary to protect my collection but I ask you to protect it so it will be absolutely safe. I will come east in a few days and confer with you. I do not like to be put to any expense as the claim of Chapman is false and he grossly misrepresented the value of some and rare coins three or four years ago. I ordered them sent to me and upon inquiry found he tried to sock me. I returned the Coins to him and they have been in his possession ever since. Think it is about four years ago

Yours Truly,
H. O. Granberg

Write me particulars and what is necessary for me to do. I will compel Chapman to release attachment over

Dear Greenbury

I opened your letter to Mr. Balden as he is not in to-day. He will write you more fully to-morrow. You can feel sure that the Society will protect your claims to the best of their ability. I think you will have to put up about $10 000.00 bond to release them and then you will either have to pay or fight the case.

Very truly

Mr. Henry Chapman

Dear Sir:-

I am directed by the Council to send you the enclosed cheque for $100.00, the amount you paid to the Society as life membership fee, and to request your resignation as member of The American Numismatic Society,

Respectfully

My dear Mr. Granberg:-

I am sending you herewith, for your information, a copy of the warrent of attachment that was served on me on February 18.

Mr. Root handed me your letter this morning together with a copy of the note he wrote to you. I note that you expect to come here in the course of a few days, which is a very good plan. I should think the best thing to do would be to file a bond of a certain amount, probably $2000, to release your coins so that they can be sent back to Tarzana, and that that bond would remain in force until the question should be settled one way or the other. The Sheriff's fees Ect, of course, have to be paid by the party losing the suit. I am keeping in touch with our own lawyer, and if I get any further suggestions from him, I will write you at once. The coins are in my custody, and I cannot give them up except on an order from the Sheriff. They are packed and locked up in my safe, so I guess are perfectly safe for the present.

Hoping to see you soon, I am

Very sincerely yours,

February 24, 1914.

Mr. Newell Martin
20 Exchange Place,
New York City.

Dear Mr. Martin:-

Referring to our telephone conversation of this morning, I am sending you herewith a copy of the warrant of attachment served on me, on the afternoon of February 18. I am also sending a copy of the letter received from Mr. Granberg yesterday, and of the reply sent to him by Mr. Wood, our Curator. I am also sending a copy of what I have written out as the minutes of a short meeting of the Council held on Saturday, and of the letter that I had in mind to send to Mr. Chapman. As regards the minutes of this meeting, I have not as yet written them in the minute book so they could be modified, if you think it better to do so. The letter to Mr. Chapman, I shall not send off until I receive a check from our treasurer, which I asked him to send.

I will send Mr. Granberg, as you suggested, a copy of the warrent of attachment.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Granberg:-

Your letter of February 26th has just been received. On February 24th I mailed you a copy of the warrant that was served on me. As you are a non-resident, Crapser was able, in bringing this suit, to attach this property of yours, which he found here, which he did, and that enabled the sheriff to take possession and hold the coins until they should be released either by filing the bond or by the final decision of the suit. While the coins are here in my custody, I am held responsible to the sheriff for their safe keeping, and am unable to give them up to you or any one without the sheriff's order. The sheriff is held responsible for these coins, and technically they are in his possession, as in taking them I am technically a representative of the sheriff, therefore to release the coins before the suit is decided, it is necessary to give a bond which I am informed will cover twice the amount sued for and various attendant expenses, probably amounting over $2000.00. The coins are now locked up in your safe box, the key of which is in my pocket, and the box is in my safe. They are therefore as safe as we can make them. Of course some action on your part should be taken very promptly, as it would not do to neglect the thing, and possibly let the case go by default.

The attorneys that I received in my telegram, Martin, Fraser & Speir, 30 Exchange Place, New York, are the attorneys for the Society, and I simply consulted them as to what action I could take in the matter for my own protection, and to be able to advise you as far as possible. Should you desire them to represent you in the case, I should think it would be well to communicate with them direct. Of course the merits of the case have nothing to do with the effect of the attachment on the coins. It is simply to take advantage of the opportunity to get hold of property of yours in this state and hold it here so that if he should be successful in his suit he could collect on that property and not have to go out to Oshkosh.

I think it is most important that a bond should be given to release these coins so that you can get them in your own possession again. By so doing you simply substitute one form of security for another without affecting the case in any way.

They can have the coins held until the suit is decided, and as things go that might take some time. I judge from your last letter that you expected to be in New York very soon. It would certainly be better for you to be on the spot, and yet your defense is as strong as it is possible to be on. Aside from what you say in your letter, you ought to have a good case, and if you win, all the expenses of retaining the coins &c will come out of the other party.

Trusting that we will have the pleasure of seeing you very soon, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Sir and Friend:

Your letter of the 28th just at hand and noted. I also received a copy of the summons - all of which clears up the situation somewhat better. The time to file answer to the summons is twenty days from time they were served, which gives me until March 10th. I hope to be able to leave here so as to reach New York the latter part of the week, and expect to hunt you up and will see the Attorneys you named immediately. In case I should be unable for any reason to arrive or communiate with you I must ask you to act in my stead. (This only in case of serious delay or accident) as I shall use my best efforts to look into this personally. My answer would be to concede to name, location. The Call to send me Coins as he states, but deny having bought them and claim False representation as to value and rarity, which I learned after having received the coins, and having refused to accept them at prices placed on them, they were returned to him and have been in his possession for over three years.

The Society's Attorneys can make the wording in proper form, and if I am n t there by Tuesday A. M. March 10th, kindly see that the Attorneys for Chapman get my answer. However I expect to be there this week, and will hunt you up shortly after my arrival to confer with you, and release the collection if possible. Thanking you for having looked after the matter, and hoping you will assist me further so I do not sustain any direct loss to my collection. Hoping to see you soon, I am,

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Belden:

The summons calls on Mr. Granberg to answer within twenty days.

(1) That, however, means within twenty days from the service of the summons on him. The plaintiff may already have secured an order for the service of this summons outside of the State, and this summons may already have been served on Mr. Granberg. I have, however, no information on that point and probably the summons has not been served at all.

(2) The business of serving Mr. Granberg outside of this State puts the plaintiff to a few dollars of extra expense, and when Mr. Granberg comes to town the plaintiff will try to serve the summons on him here. I advise that Mr. Granberg, if it is not too much trouble, ask the hotel clerk to permit Mr. Granberg to register in a separate book so that his name may not be seen by the casual observer or published on the lists of arrivals. It is a very common thing for a man's arrival in this city to be kept private in this way for two or three days when there is some negotiation on and he does not wish people to know that he has arrived. It would be a very natural thing for Mr. Granberg to say to the hotel clerk that certain people were expecting that he would come to town and that he did not wish them to know for two or three days that he was here. This is not a point of much importance.

(3) Sometimes it happens that an attachment fails through the neglect of the plaintiff to serve the summons on the defendant, but in this case, where the property attached is so important and the amount in suit is so small, it is better to assume that the plaintiff will take all necessary steps to protect himself and preserve his attachment. And the great value of the property attached makes it important to carry forward the defense promptly.

(4) If Mr. Granberg has not been served with a copy of the summons there is no hurry. He is not under need of reaching New York within the twenty days that he has in mind. In that case the only urgency about his coming to New York is this: it is highly desirable to remove the attachment and free the property before the Sheriff takes it into his head to take it into his own custody. Property of this great value, especially where there may be great difference of opinion as to the value of particular objects, should be kept out of the custody of the Sheriff, if possible.

Suppose the Sheriff were to take the collection and should put it in one of his safes, and then suppose, with the connivance of some petty officer, burglars should loot that safe; then Mr. Granberg would have to sue the Sheriff for damages, and in order to collect his claim would have to go to the expense and risk of proving the value of his collection with expensive experts.

I write this letter in duplicate so that you may send a copy of it to Mr. Granberg.

Most sincerely
Newell Wardin

As soon as he gets here, I will call you up and if he wants to give you his case we will arrange so that you can see him as soon as possible.

I will drop in and see you the first opportunity as I want to talk to you about what action the Society can take regarding Chapman. It is the desire of the Members of the Council to take some action as soon as it is wise to do so.

My dear Mr. Belden: To save time, I send you a copy of the first draft of my letter sent to Mr. Cranberg. I now

Continued (4) In its just indignation your Society passed a resolution requesting Chapman to resign his membership, and directing that his initiation fees should be sent back to him. I have asked you to make no note of this resolution, and it may be desirable not to put it on the minutes; and it is important not to say anything to Chapman about its having been passed. You cannot expel a member from a society until he has had a chance to put in his defense. I need not state authorities to you on this point because you know all about the law on this subject. It is true you have not expelled the man. You have only asked him to resign. It may be that there is a vital distinction between asking a man to resign and expelling him; but there is always danger. Put this case to yourself: Suppose you, being a member in good standing in this Society, and in your own eyes without fault, were requested to hand in your resignation, would you not be tempted to try to bring suit against the Society, enjoining it from demanding your resignation and directing the directors to rescind the resolution?

Is it necessary to solve the questions that would be presented by such a resolution? Is it not wise to content ourselves with the trouble that we already have? A collection of great value has been attached by a pig who seeks to enforce in an unnatural jurisdiction a small claim which is probably unjust. We do not yet know whom Cranberg's lawyers will be or what course they may wish to take. They certainly will not wish to have the first steps in the lawsuit encumbered by any unnecessary controversy with Chapman.

Most sincerely,

Arnold Mather
